WELSH BATCH OF BACHELORS

Young Men of the First Welsh Baptist Church Entertain Today's Convention of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The auditorium of the First Welsh Baptist church was completely filled last evening at the entertainment and social of the "Batch of Bachelor Bachelors" who, by the way, are the young men of the church. The room was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting.

Chairman John J. Davies gave a short address, after which the Belvedere school members, prize winners at the Laurel Hill state contest, sang the "Star Spangled Banner" under the excellent leadership of Master Eddie Davies. William Griffiths rendered a trombone solo entitled "Romance." He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. D. B. Thomas. Solos were rendered by Thomas Beynon, Margaret Davies, Morris Thomas, Mrs. Charles McGee, William Evans and party sang, and a piano duet by Mrs. D. B. Thomas and Lizzie Hughes won merited applause. A selection was rendered by the noted Columbian quartette, Charles Cadogan Redford and Master Eddie and Miss Edith Davies rendered a vocal duet. The closing chorus was rendered by the juvenile choir.

A social followed, during which refreshments were served.

Conventions Will Be Today.

Owing to the delay of several Philadelphia delegates the organization of a Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, which was to have been held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, will be held today at the appointed hour.

In order that yesterday's call may not be nullified the delegates met yesterday, but postponed the time for holding the convention. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. A. B. Holmes, of Martha Washington Chapter, No. 3. The delegates who were present are spending the time in viewing the city under the guidance of the members of the local lodges. Mrs. Sneed will be in charge of the ceremonies today.

Work of Shoplifters.

Arthur Deal, proprietor of the People's Drygoods store on South Main avenue, is supposed to be a continual victim to shop lifters. On Tuesday evening he lost a 30-yard piece of dress goods from the front of the store. No one saw the theft committed. Mr. Deal believes from past experience that the thief was a woman.

On two or three occasions women have been detected while taking things from the store. Less than two weeks ago a woman was captured and arrested for stealing a dozen pairs of socks. Mr. Deal did not prosecute, but will do so in the future.

Funeral of Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Mary Jones, wife of Frank H. Jones, died at her home, 720 South Main street, Tuesday morning, after an illness of three weeks. She was 26 years of age and is survived by a husband and one son. Mrs. Jones possessed an earnest Christian spirit, and many fine womanly qualities.

The remains were taken to Jeffersonville, N. Y., yesterday for interment. They were accompanied by her husband and father-in-law, William S. Jones. Mr. Jones has the sympathy of a large number of friends in his sad affliction.

Brief Notes of Interest.

Miss Clara Morris, of Washburn street, is ill.

The kindergarten of St. David's Episcopal church will give an entertainment Dec. 1.

Lieutenant Thomas Williams, of the West Side precinct, is on duty after enjoying a vacation.

Samuel Davies, a well known resident of this side has opened a barber shop on Third and Main avenues.

Mrs. Daniel Protheroe and child, of Summer avenue, left yesterday to join Mr. Protheroe at Milwaukee.

George Jones, of South Summer avenue, will leave today for Milwaukee, where he intends to reside in the future.

The Republican league of the West Side will hold a meeting in their rooms tomorrow evening. Every member is requested to attend.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church will give an entertainment in the lecture room November 27.

Dr. and Mrs. Moylan, of Summer avenue, have returned from their wedding tour. They visited New York, Washington and other places.

A convention for the purpose of organizing a Grand Chapter, O. E. S., will be called this morning at 10 o'clock sharp, at Masonic hall, 206 N. Main avenue. All members of the order are invited to be present. By order of Alice Jackson, attest, Cora M. Buckingham, secretary.

Miss Ethel Rinker, of South Bromley avenue, entertained a few friends at her home Tuesday evening. Those present were Misses Bertha Wetling, Jane Davis, Ethel Rinker, Harriet Thompson, of Stroudsburg, and Will Lewis, Charles B. Mansfield, Edgar Meredith and Thomas Beale.

Miss Rosina Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Price, of Lafayette street, held a very pleasant nut social at her home on Tuesday evening. Among those present were Misses Minnie Davies, Lizzie Schmidt, Ethel Davies, Mary Grancher, Nellie Halbert, Laura Halbert, Yetta Icheroff, Rosie Reese and Robert Jarvis, Alvin Davis and William Jones.

Tramping to New York.

A curious scene is displayed every evening during this week at the police station, where the accommodation for transient boarders has been more than severely taxed by the large number of men tramping from the lakes on their way to New York. Owing to the closing of the navigation season, the men are compelled to travel in search of work and New York seems to be their point of refuge, where they expect to obtain employment on outward bound steamers. The number of boarders exceeds the number of bunks and as the men are not fastidious in their tastes, they have not much difficulty in making their beds on the hard concrete floor.

NORTH END NOTES.

A. J. Curran, of Aveca, visited friends here yesterday.

The Clifton's Cornet Band will give a ball in Company Harmony tonight.

John McNamara, of Market street, fell last Tuesday night and dislocated his shoulder.

John McDonnell is improving his barber shop on the corner of Oak street and Fifth avenue.

C. J. Murray, of Market street, has removed to Pittston, where he is employed in a bakery.

William Haddell, of the Fenner & Chappell store, is seriously ill at his home on Providence road.

Miss May Halstead, of Lenoxville, is visiting her cousin, Miss Blanche Halstead, of Oak street.

The North End Foot Ball team will play the team from the Pittston High school, on the latter's grounds, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Marie Lewis, of Main avenue, has returned from a visit with Miss Marie Thomas at the Bloomsburg State Normal school.

George A. Dickerson is improving his property on the corner of Church avenue and Putnam street, which he recently purchased of Andrew D. Lord, of Chicago.

A water pipe burst yesterday in the second story of the building owned by W. W. Winton, on Wayne avenue, and completely flooded the building. The building was unoccupied.

All members of the American Mendelssohn Choral society are requested to meet for rehearsal at Lucas hall this evening. Arrangements will be made for the concert which will be held in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church on Thanksgiving night.

Fresh oysters received daily at Palmer's market.

Miss Rose Quinn, of Drinker street, is visiting friends in Forest City.

The Washington social club held a ball Tuesday evening at McHale's hall.

Workmen have commenced raising Dr. Lee's new house on Dudley street.

Miss Nina Haggarty and Miss Marie Leagan attended a festival at Moscow Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Horace Kipp, of Paupack, Pike county, is visiting at the residence of G. W. Jones, on Brook street.

Miss Dina Capwell and Miss Augusta Rinkney attended dancing school in Hyde Park Monday evening.

Misses Mary Ann Lottus, Annie Phillips and Kate McNulty have returned from Wilkes-Barre, where they have been visiting friends.

The Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company are placing the Hall signals at all crossings.

The world moves, so does the borough of Dunmore. After Dec. 1 we expect to have all night lights, a long felt want. The next move should be for all night police.

EXTENDING THE TRACK.

Traction Company Plans in the North End-West Side Extension.

The Traction company has been very expeditious in laying the new track from Swetland street to Bull's Head, Providence. Serious difficulties were encountered on the hill near the old school house, on Cemetery road, owing to the rock which shoots out to the surface. Blast had to be carried on which retarded the progress of the work.

Arrangements will be made to run cars direct from Lackawanna avenue to Bull's Head, thus relieving the congested state of the traffic in the center of the city by establishing a direct run from the west side of Providence.

Transfers will be granted to passengers embarking at Bull's Head, and detours of continuing the journey.

Fears are entertained by residents on Swetland street and vicinity lest the track on that street will be taken up. Efforts will be made to approach the company, upon the matter.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The list will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever appeared as an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residence in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

Pittsburg's Flour Mills have a capacity of 17,500 barrels a day.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Mrs. John Kane, of Minooka, Murderously Assaulted with a Knife.

SHE HAD A VERY CLOSE CALL

Dastardly Attack Made by a Young Man Named John O'Neill. He Flew to Escape Arrest—Funeral of H. G. Senker—Death of Mrs. John Wagner.

Mrs. John Kane, of Minooka, or "Nellie" as she is more popularly known, was slashed with a large bread knife by John O'Neill, living next door, last night and Dr. Manly, who was sent for, feared that her life could not be saved. However, later he stated that she was out of danger.

Conflicting stories are told of the affair, but the facts appear to be as follows: O'Neill and Michael Kane began quarreling in the basement, where a saloon is kept by the people. He ran upstairs after the fight with her son and picked up the knife from the supper table at which Mrs. Kane was seated eating her supper, and he slashed her with it on the side of the head, inflicting a gash that cut to the skull. The blood flowed freely and from the large quantity that she lost Mrs. Kane became unconscious and when Dr. Manly arrived he found her almost lifeless. He sewed up the cut and applied restoratives.

O'Neill thought, as well as everybody else, that he had committed murder and he slipped out. He is a young man about 21 years of age and lived with his parents in one of Kane's houses.

Funeral of Herman G. Senker.

Yesterday morning the remains of the late Herman G. Senker were interred in the Twentieth Ward German Catholic cemetery. At 10 o'clock the body was removed from the residence, 212 Stone avenue, and borne to St. Mary's church on River street, where Rev. George J. Stopper celebrated a high mass of requiem for the departed soul.

St. Peter's Verein society and Branch 25 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association marched as bodies and preceded the hearse in the funeral procession. The pall bearers were Joseph Frick, Peter Phillips, P. F. Haran and James A. O'Hara. The flower bearers were Joseph Snyder and Henry Wetter.

Shorter Paragraphs.
